

Individual Application Form

Individuals wishing to apply for registration under the Auctioneers Act 2013 should use this form.

NOTE: If your business is an incorporated company and you intend to use the company's name to conduct auctions, you must apply to register as a company. To apply for company registration, complete the company application form, which can be found on our website.

To register as an individual auctioneer, follow the steps below.

Step 1 – apply to the Ministry of Justice for a copy of your criminal record

You must provide us with a copy of your criminal record from the Ministry of Justice as part of your application. Please note that the wait time for criminal record reports is around 20 working days. We accept criminal record reports that are less than six months' old. See www.justice.govt.nz/criminal-records/get-your-own/ for more details.

Step 2 – complete this application form

Items marked with an * on this form are mandatory as they are required under section 9 of the Auctioneers Act 2013 or regulation 4 of the Auctioneers Regulations 2014. If for some reason you cannot provide mandatory information, indicate this in the relevant field.

Step 3 – send us the completed application form and criminal record

Send us your completed form and criminal record report by email to auctioneers@mbie.govt.nz, or by post to:

Market Integrity Branch - Trading Standards
Ministry of Business, Innovation and
Employment PO Box 1473
Wellington 6140

We will assess your application and let you know if we require further information.

Step 4 – payment

The application fee is $310.00 (GST inclusive). You will be invoiced after we receive and process your application. Payment of the fee is required before your application can be completed.

Step 5 – registration

If your application is successful, we will email you a certificate of registration and add your details to the online auctioneer register.

Privacy Notice: Any personal information submitted on this application that the Registrar determines is not required for public inspection will be kept by the Market Integrity Branch (MI) in accordance with the New Zealand Privacy Act 1993. Personal information will be used by the MI for determining whether application for registration as a Register Auctioneer may be granted, and for the maintenance and administration of the Auctioneers Register. You may request access to see any information held about you and where that information is inaccurate, ask for it to be corrected.
